Disclosures for Massachusetts Consumers and Prospective Students

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts requires all for-profit institutions to provide consumers and prospective students these disclosures at least 72 hours before the consumer or prospective student enters into an enrollment agreement with the institution. Please review these disclosures carefully, then sign and date them and submit to your Admissions point of contact.

Information Regarding Kaplan University Admissions Employees: The Kaplan University admissions team member with whom you, as a Massachusetts resident, will work is not an “advisor.” The primary purpose of the Massachusetts Kaplan University admissions team is to enroll students into Kaplan University programs. Massachusetts law prohibits Kaplan University from referring to admissions team members in Massachusetts as “advisors.” You may see references to Kaplan University “Admissions Advisors” in some public documents applying to residents of other states, but that reference does not apply to Kaplan University’s Massachusetts admissions employees.

GRADUATION TIME

Massachusetts law defines “Median Completion Time” as the median duration of attendance in months, rounded to the nearest month, of all students who obtained a certificate, diploma, or degree from a program during the latest two calendar years. Based on this definition, the average Kaplan University student graduates in the median completion time indicated below:

YOUR LOAN DEBT

You must repay money that you borrow as student loans to pay for this program, including interest. You must repay any portion of the money you borrow to pay for this program, even if you fail to complete or drop out of the program. Failure to repay student loans is likely to have a serious negative effect on your credit, future earnings, and your ability to obtain future student loans.

Loan Nonpayment Statistics

Massachusetts requires institutions to disclose a loan nonpayment percentage comprising students in the institution's most recent federal cohort default rate (covering years 2008-2010), additional students in that cohort whose Stafford loans were in deferment or forbearance, and additional students who defaulted under the terms of institutional loans during the period.

58.9% of Kaplan University students defaulted on or failed to repay their loans during the period 2008-2010, as shown below:

All Borrowers	Defaulters – 2010 Official CDR	Non-Defaulted Borrowers in Deferment or Forbearance*	Defaulted Institutional Borrowers	Total Non-Payers	Loan Nonpayment Percentage†
42,263	10,963	13,735	213	24,911	58.9%

*Includes students who were enrolled at least half time in an eligible postsecondary institution; who qualified for disability rehabilitation, unemployment, or economic hardship deferment; or who qualified for military service or post-active duty student loan deferment.

†Calculated as the Total Non-Payers divided by the number of All Borrowers.

Placement Rates and Employment Statistics

Massachusetts law requires schools to disclose graduate placement rates and employment statistics. Kaplan University's accreditor, The Higher Learning Commission, does not require the University to track and report placement rates. Accordingly, Kaplan University cannot report the percentage of graduates during 2012 and 2013 who obtained full-time, non-temporary jobs in their field of study or the total placement rate of students enrolled in a program during 2012 and 2013 who obtained full-time, non-temporary jobs in their field of study, and Massachusetts students should assume that the graduate placement rate and total placement rates are 0%.

Further, because Kaplan University has not tracked placement for 2012 and 2013, it does not have employment statistics available for these calendar years.
