^ Students who have earned an associate’s or bachelor’s degree from a regionally or nationally accredited college may be eligible to have designated lower-level courses waived from the bachelor’s degree requirements. Students will be awarded credit from their prior degree for an equal number of credits as the credit value of the waived courses, giving an advanced start in the bachelor’s degree. Please reference the full policy in the Kaplan University catalog online or in the pdf under Policy Information => Prior Learning Assessment => Advanced Start Credit in Bachelor’s Degrees.
