STAFFORD LOANS

Stafford loans are funded by the federal government and are either subsidized (the government pays the loan's interest while you are enrolled in school) or unsubsidized (you pay the loan's interest, which can be deferred until after you graduate).

The below chart highlights current annual and aggregate loan limits for subsidized and unsubsidized Stafford loans, which may be combined to fund your education.

Please note: There are different limits for dependent and independent undergraduate students as well as graduate and professional students. Subsidized Stafford loans are limited to the amounts in the column titled Combined Base Limit for Subsidized and Unsubsidized Loans. Unsubsidized Stafford loans are limited to the amounts in the Total Limit for Unsubsidized Loans column, minus the amount of any subsidized Stafford loans.
