Where is the Writing Center?
The Writing Center is located on KU Campus and is easy to find. From your KU Campus homepage, go to the tab labeled My Studies at the top left of the page and choose “Writing and Math Centers” from the dropdown menu. You have now navigated your way to some great information that you may find invaluable in your first-term classes and beyond.

What can the Writing Center provide?
The Writing Center is designed to help you with all of your Kaplan University-related writing tasks. The Writing Center offers five types of support: live tutoring, the Q&A Writing Center, a comprehensive writing reference library, a wide variety of live and archived workshops, and a paper review service. All of our tutors are qualified Kaplan University instructors, ready to help you reach your full potential as an effective, academic writer.

Writing Tutor
The Writing Center’s live tutoring sessions are staffed by Kaplan University composition instructors. While they are not able to read entire projects during these sessions, they are happy to discuss various aspects of your work, APA formatting, grammar and mechanics, or writing in general. Follow the link on the Writing Tutor page of the Writing Center to begin your tutoring session. Tutors are available Sunday through Tuesday from 6:00 to 11:00 pm ET.

Q&A Writing Center
The Q&A Writing Center allows you to submit writing-related questions to tutors at any time. Replies are given within 24 hours during the week and within 48 hours on the weekends. Note: The 24- to 48-hour turnaround time does not apply to questions submitted during official University holidays. You can retrieve an answer by visiting the same link used to post your question.

Writing Reference Library
There are over 250 pages of tutorials for you to use to brush up on grammar, mechanics, APA formatting and citations, and the writing process itself. Follow the links on the Writing Reference Library page of the Writing Center to access the different topics.

Paper Review Service
When you submit a paper for review, a Kaplan University professor will assess your writing and provide holistic feedback within 48 to 72 hours. Please note: You may submit up to six papers for review per term. These tutors will provide suggestions for writing improvement, in terms of grammar, mechanics, and organization, but will not “correct”, edit, or rewrite your paper. You will receive pointers to help you gain a better understanding of the areas that need improvement.

Good luck to you, and have a GREAT term!
